Join us weekly for 60 minutes of learning, sharing, and connecting as we focus on implementing classroom management strategies that increase student engagement in remote settings as well as blended learning environments. Creating clear expectations while providing students with opportunities with choice and voice can be a challenge while teaching virtually, yet these sessions will provide you with strategies to make it happen! You can expect a quick community builder, a short professional learning segment, followed by opportunities to discuss and share ideas with educators from across Wayne County. Whether you're a remote teaching pro, new to online instruction, or just plain curious, these sessions are for you!

Together we will put high-leverage engagement practices into action!
